DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8, 19-27, drawn to a method and a kit device for inspecting an end surface of an optical connector comprising a plate constructed and arranged to be mounted on an inspection machine, and cage member is arranged to receive the optical connector, classified in class 356, subclass 244.
- II. Claims 9-18, drawn to a cage member for an optical connector comprising: a frame, a latch assembly, flange, wherein the flange defining a continuous, flat, planar end face, and flange having a height that at least 25 % more than the frame height, classified in class 385, subclass 50+.
- III. Claim 28, drawn to a mounting arrangement having a cradle, a jig supported by cradle, a chuck within the jig, a fixture mounted on the jig, and an optical connector, classified in class 385, subclass 88.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and (II and III) are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the patentability of the combination (Group I) does not required a particular of the subcombinations as claimed (Group II and III). The subcombination has separate utility such as optical fiber networks, optical fiber amplifiers, optical equalizers, interferometer microscope, and a cable television system.

Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as holding an optical connector. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group (II and III), and Group III is not required for Group (I and II) and vice versa, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Julie R. Daulton on 09/17/03 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sang H Nguyen whose telephone number is 703-308-6426. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9AM-6PM.
